

Umbela Privacy Policy:

The information we collect:

We will collect information via our Health Questionnaire about your contact details and health issues that have the potential to influence the way we will work with you during the practices in our classes.

In addition we will keep records about time and date of classes attended and content of said classes.

Why we collect this data

We are collecting the Data in our health questionnaire to be able to adapt our classes to your personal need based on any medical issues you may have. This is done to reduce any risk of harm or injury to yourself.

Storage and Process of the data we hold

You agree that we will keep the information provided by you in the health questionnaire, any updates thereof, and records of classes attended in our records for 7 years after the last treatment.

You understand that providing the health questionnaire you agree for us to receive and store the data contained therein for the course of services provided to you and 7 years thereafter.

Should no official end have been noted then the 7 years shall commence if no class has been taken for one year (365 days).

We will do everything in our power to keep your data safe and protected. This includes password secured storage of your information with access to that information limited to the practitioner providing the service.

Sharing your information with 3rd parties

We will not share your information with any third parties unless we are required to do so by law or as part of legal proceedings.

Consent in relation to GDPR regulations Article 6 and 9

By agreeing to this Privacy Policy you provide us with the consent required under Article 6 and 9 to obtain and hold your health related data and use it as a basis for classes to be provided to you.

Your right to withdraw your consent

You have the right to withdraw your consent for us to use and retain your data at any time. However, the withdrawal of said consent will result in a stop of service and start the 7 year data retention period.

Destruction of you data post data retention period

Upon expiry of the 7 year data retention period we will destroy all personal data we hold in our records, in relation to you.
